Gallery Review

By Adrienne Emmering

Walk into the Arts Benicia Gallery, and you are taking a trip back in time. Housed in a palatial military mansion, built in 1860, the Gallery, located at One Commandant's Lane in Benicia, is currently featuring a show '35 by 35, a celebration of Arts Benicia in its 35th year'. The theme - artists, selecting and supporting other artists, features the work of thirty-five established and upcoming artists from the Bay Area.

Dozens of media are represented: collage, oil, color transfer on paper, acrylic, sculpture, and water media. Hand crafted works such as 'Cooley Landing: Life in Water' by Linda Gass, are made of textiles stitched and quilted into a large composition featuring a variety of tranquil blue and turquoise colors and silk like textures. Another work, 'Rhyme or Reason' is made of varied textiles, loosely stitched together. The colors are stark and striking whites, greys, vivid reds and black.

'Ruth's Gray' by Carol Dalton, is a very large mixed media work. An extreme abstract, its very size invites the viewer to reflect on its subject - which is simply vastness itself. Other media in the show: linoleum block print, sculpture (metal assemblages), collage, something mysterious called air dried clay, digital photography, glass work, etching, and photography.

One enterprising artist, Martin Segobia, drew a very detailed ink rendering of Mohammed Ali (yes, that Mohammed Ali) on a (real) U.S. bank note! Another item, a wood fired vase, by Jason Edmonds, resembles a kind-of found object that resembles an otherworldly plant, or some other organic shape, rather than a vase.

Well worth the visit.

FVSAA Potluck Social

We had a wonderful turnout at our Brunch Social at Chris and Aura Naughton's historic home on Georgia street in Vallejo on the Sunday, October 16. It was a delightful day with Members bringing cakes, snacks, and special treats to the event.

It was a great way to connect outside of the Galleries to have some fun and meet new members.

Thanks Chris and Aura!

Let's do it again next year!
